The only opposition at the time of his election to the place was from Horatio G. Glen, president of the Schenectady school board, who, it is said, was anxious to ed in this, he set about to elect a friendly board, and this was done early in the year, with the result that Freeman was dismissed without a chance to defend him-

Then the people of Schenectady took the matter into their own hands. Citizens gathered on corners and organized mass meetings, and for weeks excitement ran high. Meetings were held every night in the week, and an organized fight was made by the Citizens' League, Ministerial Association, Chamber of Commerce, Business Men's Association, Women's Club, College Women's Club, Union Presbyterian Church, Young Men's Re-publican Club, and the W. Don't let the pennies slip through your fingers and don't let the dollars burn a hole in your pocket, but put them in a savings account in this bank. The small sums you spend foolishly each month will bring you a great deal more enjoyment, and benefit you materially in a financial way, if invested wisely. We pay 3% interest.
